

Khalsa Primary School
Faith inspired education

School Website Policy

Purpose

The governors are committed to

- a) providing all statutory information on line for parents, and the wider community
- b) maintaining up-to-date information

Key information that must be published online

In accordance with the School Information (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2012 which came into force on 1 September 2012 and applies to maintained schools, Khalsa will publish the following key information:

- Information on our pupil premium allocation - its use and its impact on attainment
- Information on our sports premium allocation
- Information about Governors
- Information about curriculum provision, content and approach by academic year and by subject
- Information on admission arrangements
- The school's policies on
 - behaviour,
 - charging,
 - special educational needs (SEN) and disability provision
- Links to the school's Ofsted reports and Department for Education (DfE) achievement and attainment performance data
- A statement of the school's ethos and values
- A statement on British Values and a policy statement on preventing extremism