Activity

Phonics

Phonics workshop to take place in the near future.

Read Write Inc.
Phonics

Phonics is taught everyday
3 sounds a week – learn how to say it and write it.
Phonics homework books – to be completed on the day they learn the sound.
Revising these sounds everyday is important.
Stay away from using the alphabet
Just pure sounds
Reading – when children can blend we give Read Write inc reading

Maisie, mountain, mountain

Around the apple and down the leaf

Slither down the snake

Around the dinosaurs bottom and up to his neck

Down the tower, across the tower

Orange

The aim of our uniform is to giving the school a sense of identity. The school is judged, in part, by how its children appear in and around school.

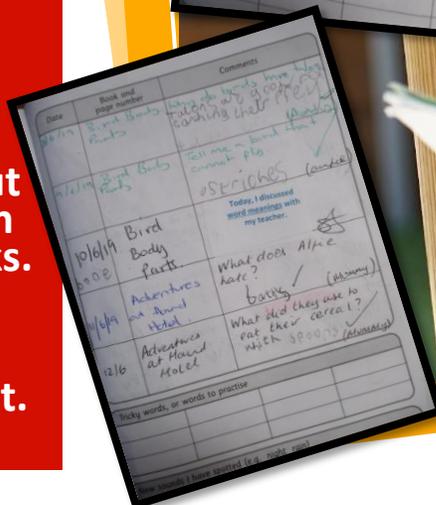

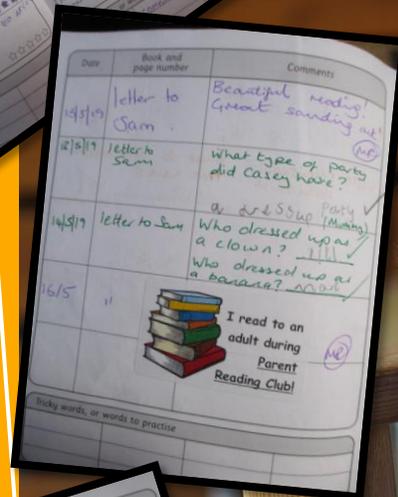

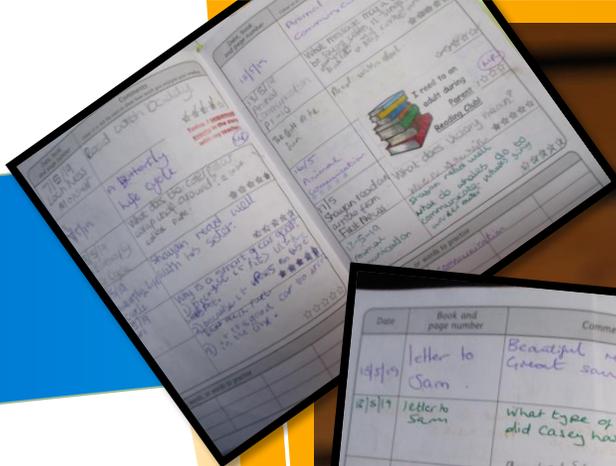

Communication

- To communicate with your child's class teacher you can either use class dojo or speak to the teacher at the end of the day.
- If there are any urgent messages, please communicate with staff outside.
- All absences must be reported to the school office.
- There will be a half-termly newsletter going out digitally.
- The school website and facebook will be updated regularly to show any events taking place.

Reading Records

- Read every day and complete the record with the date, title and a comment during school time.
- Should be neatly presented.
- We will hear your child read in school everyday but we record twice a week in their reading record books.
- Read books at home including those on the recommended reading list.

View our list of high quality books from the '100 fiction books every child should read before they leave primary school' which we recommend as good reading material
